ROMEO

Helping Overpopulation of Pets End

(a 501c3 rescue in Brevard County FL)

An owner surrender, Romeo needed to have surgery to remove a bladder stone and have his teeth cleaned. We tried w/ food and medication to reduce the stone but it did not work.

His surgery cost is around $500, your donation appreciated!

Available for adoption Oct 15th

HOPE has many cats and dogs available for adoption. Donations help us save animals and 'get them healthy' before adopting.

Some animals, like Romeo, need more than a routine examine, shots, spay/neuter.
